

Criminology Bachelor's to Master's Pathway Program

- Expand your career opportunities
- Increase your earning potential
- Start grad school while still undergrad

This program provides academically talented undergraduate students the opportunity* to expeditiously complete both degrees.

- Count up to 12 graduate credit hours toward your bachelor's and master's degrees.
- Take 12 graduate credit hours as an undergraduate and earn your master's with just one additional year of coursework.
- Apply for tuition assistance from the College for 1st graduate course taken as an undergraduate student.
- Explore graduate coursework as an undergraduate student and ease the transition to graduate school.

Eligibility requirements

- Current student majoring or double majoring in Criminology
- Minimum 3.5 overall and FSU GPA
- 90 Credit hours of completed coursework
- Proven academic ability to meet new challenges of graduate work

For more information contact:

Katerina Manias

Assistant Director of Graduate Programs

kmanias@fsu.edu

850-645-9169

*Combined bachelor's to master's students must still be officially accepted into the graduate program by submitting a formal application to graduate school during the last semester of their senior year.